

Formal: Build, Our World

For learners on the Build pathway, Our World provides a broad and balanced approach to science, history and geography. Topics are adapted from the National Curriculum and linked to pupils' everyday experiences, ensuring learning is both meaningful and challenging.

Learners are supported to develop subject knowledge alongside essential life skills, preparing them for adulthood and future opportunities.

